DEDICATION OF THE 1991 LION'S ROAR

Mr. Richard Priestley
Miss Mary Salmon

For putting in countless hours of effort, dedication, and patience; for understanding and leading our class; for setting goals when we had direction and guiding us when our goals were unclear; for giving us breaks when we "forgot" our dues again; for believing that each of us has the potential and energy to be a great individual; for risking failure in hopes of succeeding; for being not only coaches or teachers but also friends — we return a little of our own efforts in sincere thanks to both of you. We'll never forget you.

The Class Of 1991

SPECIAL THANKS

The Class of 1991 would also like to extend its sincere thanks to Mrs. Olivia Roberts, yearbook adviser, for her gentle persistence and undaunted enthusiasm. Without her, the 1991 Lion's Roar would never have become a reality. We will miss her encouraging smile and helpful suggestions. Thank you, Mrs. Roberts, for sharing with us your positive attitude and unending support. — The Class Of 1991

I was born in a small town
And I live in a small town
Probably die in a small town
That's probably where they'll bury me

Educated in a small town
Used to daydream in a small town

All my friends live in this small town
That small town just like me
I've seen it all in a small town
Having myself a ball in a small town
No I cannot forget where it is that I come from
I cannot forget the people who love me
I can be myself here in this small town
People let me be just who I want to be

I was born in a small town
And I live in a small town
Probably die in a small town
That's probably where they'll bury me.

Circle Game

Yesterday a child came out to wonder
Caught a butterfly inside a jar.
Fearful when the sky was full of thunder
And tearful at the falling of a star

Then the child moved ten times round the seasons,
Skated over ten clear frozen streams.
Words like "When you're older" must appease him
And promises of "Someday" make his dreams

And the seasons, they go round and round
And the painted ponies go up and down.
We're captured on a carousel of time.
We can't return, we can only look behind from where we came
And go round and round and round in the circle game.

Sixteen springs and sixteen summers gone now;
Cartwheels turn to car wheels through the town.
And they tell him, "Take your time, it won't be long now"
"Till you drag your feet to slow the circles down."

So the years spin by and now the boy is twenty,
Though his dreams have lost some grandeur coming true.
There'll be new dreams, maybe better dreams, and plenty
Before the last revolving year is through.

And the seasons, they go round and round
And the painted ponies go up and down.
We're captured on a carousel of time.
We can't return, we can only look behind from where we came
And go round and round and round in the circle game.

CAPTURING OUR PAST

Although our class is growing up together, there is still a kid in all of us. Back when these pictures were taken, our futures seemed so distant. But senior year has already ended, and who knows what the future holds for us little kids. . .

Before I came ta America as a Japanese fareign exchange student in August I had been studying intensive English in the Tuscan Arizana Study Pragram far ane manth. And sa when I gat ta Massachusetts I already felt cald. Sa at first I was discauraged at this situatian, and then I jained the faatball team, "LIONS". It helped me ta make friends and ta get used ta West Baylstan High Schaal. I think faatball made this schaal my favarite. Schaal life is satisfactary sa far. Almast all af the teachers and my friends are very nice. This schaal is very small and very friendly. Actually I am enjaying this American schaal year. This is the anly year that I can spend a whale year in America. Even if I want ta stay here langer than this year, I can't. Anyway, I will have ta ga back ta Japan next June ar July. Therefare, all I can da is da my best far the rest af the year. I have ta make staying in this schaal a wanderful and a priceless experience. I hape this year in the "Lian's Den" will be the treasure af my life.

REMEMBER THE TIME. . .

- Missy Barton wet her pants in Mrs. Minton's first grade class.
- Molly Mahoney's skirt fell off while she was running in from the playground.
- Mr. Freeman read off his five rules for a good audience.
- Sparkie came to tell stories at Edwards.
- To clean your tray after you ate you had to raise your hand.
- We had a square-dancing unit with Mrs. Bowden.
- Tommy Dodson had an asthma attack in gym class.
- Mr. Kitka threw out his arm.
- Mr. Kitka fell out of his chair.
- You could buy one ice cream sandwich for a quarter on Fridays.
- Justin Alicandro dressed up as a girl for Halloween.
- The buses were vandalized and we didn't have school.
- Tootie got into an accident with another bus pulling out of Edwards parking lot.
- Mrs. Woods' class put on Little Red Riding Hood.
- Mrs. Childs' class made up their own commercials.
- The sixth grade chorus sang "We Are The World".
- Mrs. Houghton, the art teacher at Mixter, wore a wig.
- Sue Priestley fell off the high dive at the town pool.
- Our class threw a surprise going away party for Sara Kropf at the town pool.

DANCE PARTY WBHS

On Saturday night, February 2, 1991, Dance Party USA became Dance Party WBHS. This successful dance ended Spirit Week '91 with a BANG! Tahanto students were invited to a WB dance for the first time, and together we packed the gym floor. While we danced, a huge screen showed our favorite dance videos. Everyone enjoyed these special additions to the night, and a good time was had by all.

THIS IS THE TIME. . .

Homecoming '90 was the most spirited week in WB's history. The dress-up days included: Good Morning It's Monday, Class Color Day, Mixed Seasons Day, Hippie Day, and Blue + White Day. Although the sophomores came out on top, a good time was had by all. Events such as Tug-of-War, Frozen Orange Race, Jello-Eating Contest, Weenie Bob, and Decorating the Halls highlighted the weeks' events.

Top Center: Dave, Josh, and Gambo show their black.
Top Right: Diana just woke up.
Center: Tom and Jeff stuff each other's faces.
Center Right: John goes back to the sixties, man.
Bottom Left: Hippies have a sit-in for peace.

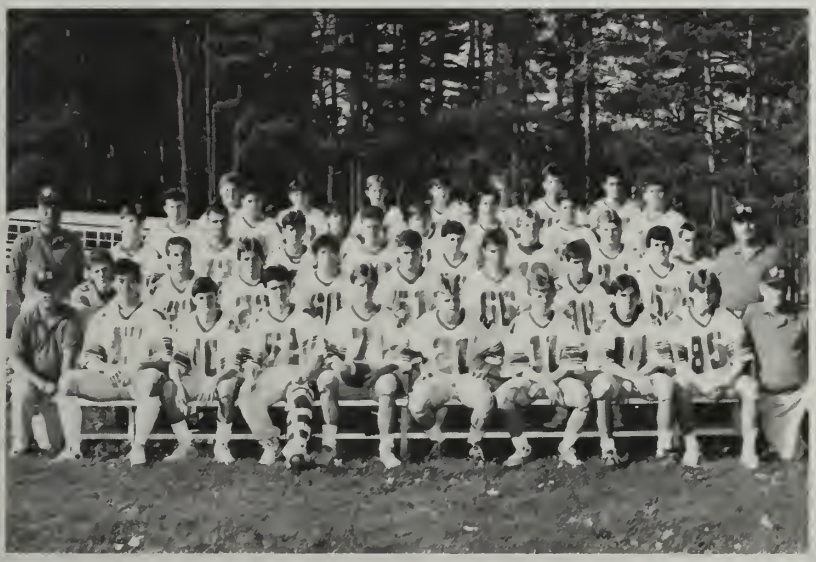
Homecoming Week's finale was the annual Homecoming Dance in the gym. The dance was truly memorable in two respects. First of all, among the court, which consisted of freshmen Diana Kershaw and Tanya Philbin, sophmores Lindsay Kerr and Katie Priestley, juniors Sara Lindberg and Kellie Richardson, and seniors Molly Mahoney and Julie Maynard, were chosen two Homecoming Queens — Molly and Julie — by tie vote. Secondly, at 9:30 p.m., the speakers blew, and the dance-goers found amusement in such games as the Hokey Pokey and Balloon Volleyball. This unique chain of events immortalized Homecoming 1990.

7:00-8:00

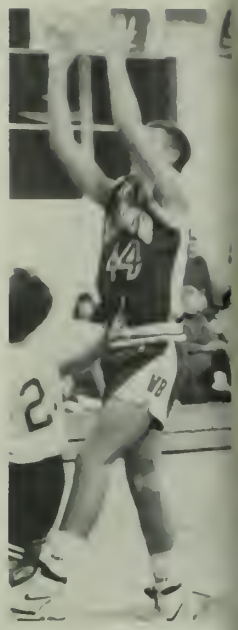
FOOTBALL

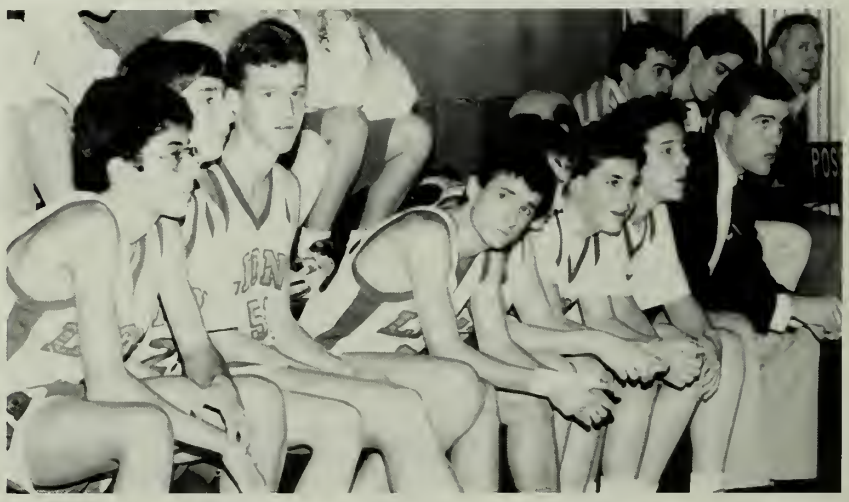
Both the J. V. and Varsity football squads kept their spirits high during a tough season, and were given a lot of support from the ever-faithful cheerleaders, football band, and fans. We look forward to great winning seasons as we merge with Tahanto's boys in football next year.

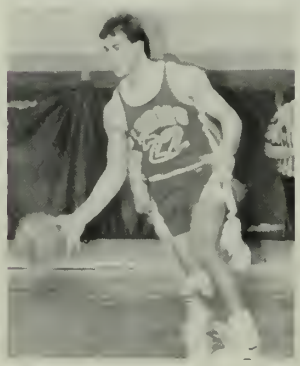


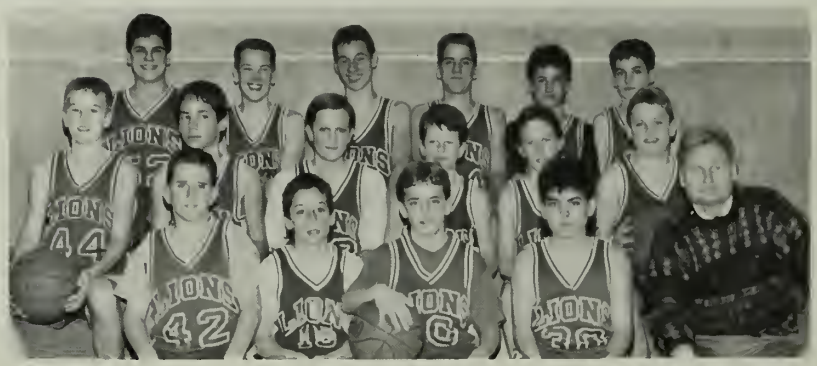
HIGH HOOPS

Our basketball teams all turned in impressive seasons. The young and talented girls' team made it all the way to the second round of the districts!! We salute our teams and their undying efforts during the 1990-91 basketball season, and we wish the best of luck to the teams of the future.









SOCCER

The girls' and boys' soccer teams kicked some grass this fall. Due to small numbers, the J. V. and Varsity teams combined to form two formidable groups of talented, quick players. From tiny Jeff Gordon to tall Josh Bailey, the teams ran the gamut from versatility and quickness to strength and power.

CAPTURED SPIRIT!!

SOPHOMORES

Student Council at WBHS had a very active year. It included such traditions as Homecoming Week and the Valentine hearts sale, but broke new ground by holding the first lock-in, winning a Medallist award on the state level, and fitting the state criteria for a Five-Star Council. We look forward to new successes and enthusiasm.

Goodbye W.

to
Christina, Ethan, and John.

It's funny how time flies when you're having fun

I don't know where it all went

Time passed us by just when it seemed the fun began

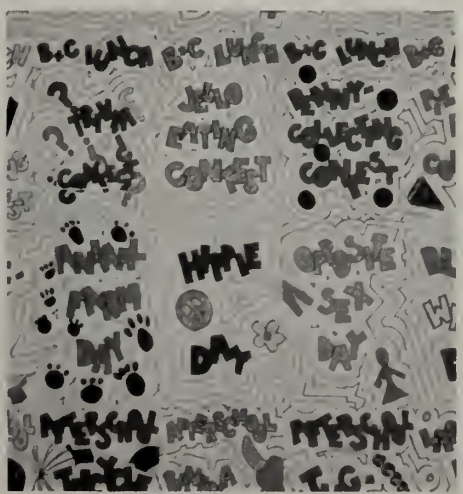
But time never ends

So let's find the time
to get together again

It's funny how time flies

when you're having fun.



Best Wishes to the Class of 1991
